GradeBook

Enhancements

Seating Chart

Teacher Home Page > Seating Chart

- The classic seating chart has been deprecated. You can now access the new seating chart from the Teacher Home Page via the Seating Chart link. You can also access it from the Class Dashboard via the Seating Chart link or the by Seating Chart link beside the Daily Attendance and Period Attendance links.

User Interface

- The GradeBook headers and backgrounds have been updated to match the Frontline color scheme.

VirtualClassroom

Enhancement

User Interface

- The VirtualClassroom header and navigation menu have been updated to match the Frontline color scheme.
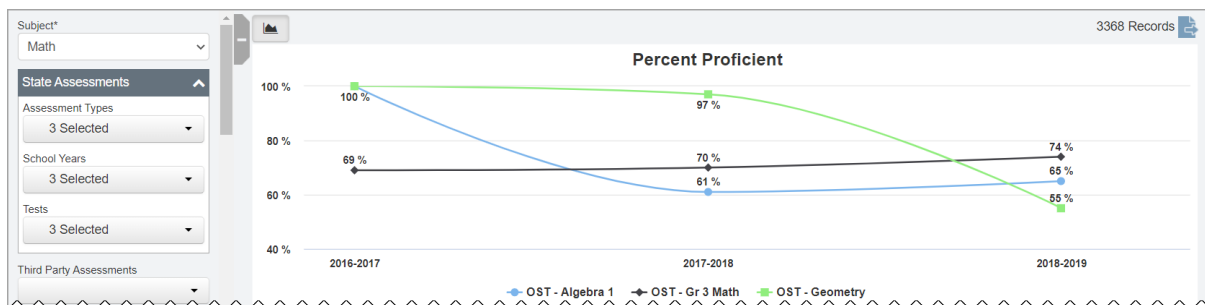

DataMap

Enhancements

Multiple Measures
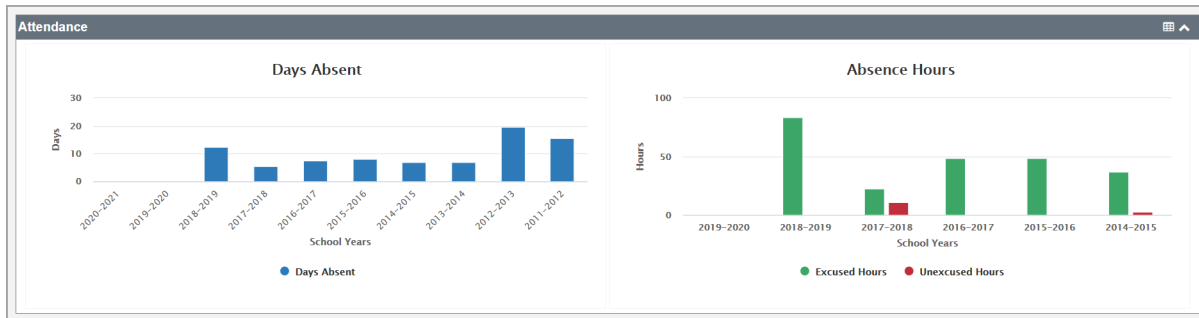

DataMap > Analysis > Multiple Measures

- Above the results grid, you can now click ![icon] to expand the new Percent Proficient line graph that displays the percentage of students who received a performance-level score of Proficient (Prof) or higher for the state assessment(s), school year(s), and state test(s) you selected. (This icon displays only if performance-level scores are available for the criteria you selected.)

Student Roadmap

DataMap > Student Roadmap

- On the top-right corner of the Attendance section, you can now click ▮▮▮ to expand the new Days Absent and Absence Hours bar graphs that display the student's days absent and absence hours, respectively, for each available school year. (This icon displays only if attendance data is available for the applicable student.)

User Interface

- The DataMap user interface have been updated to match the Frontline color scheme and styling.

SpecialServices

Enhancements

Forms

- On the Specially Designed Services form for IIEPs, AIEPs, RIEPs, IISPs, and RISPs, in the Specially Designed Instruction and Related Services sections, the following updates have been made:
  - Below the Goal(s) Addressed field, the new Sessions field, Period drop-down list, and Duration field let you enter or select the frequency of the student's service (e.g., 6 Sessions for a Period of 6 Weeks for a Duration of 60 minutes). This information now autopopulates the Amount of Time and Freqency fields.
  - Below the Provider Title field, the new Select provider type drop-down list lets you select the type of provider who provides the indicated service to the student (e.g., Licensed Audiologist).
